SUBJECT: Report for Week 29 May-5 June 1952.

1. Shortly after receiving word from the Deputy Director of Training (General) about our participation in the next Naval Intelligence School program a call was received from Comdr. Beresford of the NIS about his job as lecturer on this subject at the School. Comdr. Beresford expressed himself as pleased that we were going to be on the program and voiced his personal apprehension about what had been done during the past year-and-a-half to congest the organizational presentations into such a short period of time. I am meeting with the Chief of NIS, Capt. Franckel, on Friday, this week, to discuss the entire subject. Between now and then, Comdr. Beresford is going to brief Capt. Franckel on the schedule openings for our participation.

2. [REDACTED] has accepted our invitation to participate on the Seventh Agency Orientation Course. He has also assigned [REDACTED] of his Office to work with us on the development of the Weekly Presentation program which is to be launched in accordance with the wishes of the Director of Training.

3. To cover the research function on the Seventh Agency Orientation Course, we are indeed fortunate to have [REDACTED], Deputy Assistant Director, ORR, who has had many years of valuable experience in the intelligence field and who presently is working very closely with his Chief, Mr. Robert Amory, AD/ORR. Mr. Amory will be out of Washington when the program takes place and will be glad to participate--in fact, is very anxious to participate--on the fall program.

4. Since [REDACTED] is coming with the Office of Training, the Office of Current Intelligence has determined that they will choose another individual to speak on "Current Intelligence Production" at the forthcoming Orientation Course. I am discussing this problem with [REDACTED] next Friday morning.

5. This Office is coordinating the program for the Foreign Service Institute with [REDACTED] makes his suggestions. [REDACTED] I will meet with Mr. Miller of the Foreign Service Institute to ascertain if our proposals covering our requirements, fully satisfy his needs. This is in keeping with the wish of the Director of Training. This program with the FSI is to be conducted during the week of June 16th.
